COURSE DESCRIPTION (EN/L1 [if taught in L1])

Content

In a rapidly globalizing world, increasing migration and multiculturalism have heightened the socio-cultural complexities in educational systems. Teachers now face the challenge of integrating this diversity while actively promoting equal opportunities and justice. This seminar aims to equip future educators with the necessary skills and attitudes to foster respect and build inclusive, peaceful, and tolerant classroom communities. By developing a global mindset, teachers can serve as role models for their students, demonstrating how to embrace diversity.
