About Sarajevo

Sarajevo is the capital and largest city of Bosnia and Herzegovina, with a population of 275,524 in its administrative limits. Sarajevo has a wide tourist industry and a fast-expanding service sector thanks to the strong annual growth in tourist arrivals. Sarajevo also benefits from being both a summer and winter destination with continuity in its tourism throughout the year.

Travel to Sarajevo:

By plane:

Most likely, your arrival will be through our Sarajevo International Airport for most of you. Please check your options for flights. Turkish Airlines, Lufthansa and Austrian Airlines are well-connected with us in most cases. However, there are some low-cost options like Ryan Air and WizzAir. We hope current Europe's problems with flight companies, overbooking and delays will not affect your travel to Sarajevo.

Transfer to the city centre

- The bus: there is a bus line from Airport to the City Center (more at: <https://www.sarajevoairport.ba/Page/Autobus>).
- Taxi: You also have an opportunity to take a taxi which you will find at the exit gate of the Airport. Depending on your destination, the estimated price is 25,00-30,00 KM (10-15 €). NOTE: as in every city, taxis at airports tend to charge more for tourists than usual. Make sure to agree on the estimated price (above) and to have the taxi meter turned on.
- The Taxi app is available in Sarajevo (similar to Uber/Bolt). You can check it at: <https://www.mojtaxi.info/>.
- If you are staying in the hotel, check the options of transfer they usually organize (airport pickup).

- Unfortunately, we do not have online booking for rides like Uber or Bolt.

University of Sarajevo is the oldest public and accredited university in Bosnia and Herzegovina, founded in 1949. It holds 33 member units, with approx. 22.000 students and more than 2.000 university staff. Although it holds a small campus in the city centre, its member units are spread across the city, so it is often described as “all city – one campus”. All member units are I the walkable distance and with the city transfer. All member units have their own library while the university library is currently being constructed. The UNSA does not have dorms, but there are some options for accommodation of students and staff.
